Dear BBC,

This was the worst program ever aired on the BBC.

Nevertheless I am grateful that you adressed where you stand regarding the crime of the century. On the perpetrators side. Because you can't serious adress that this peace of biased crap was real journalism. Just look at the thousands of emails you get and the letters as well.

It was somehow information war, using all kinds of propaganda methods (like "disrespect to the victims", please watch "911 Press for truth" and claim that again!) to keep the myth of 911 alive- and it was very visible on that.

Please note that the international 911 truth movement will hold all accountable who engage in accessory after the fact regarding mass murder- and for journalism there are higer standards than for privates.

Too bad that you lost all your truthiness. Once you were a respectful format, I think of the Francovich Gladio documentary or the Power of Nightmares of Adam Curtis.

This is a shame and real disgusting. You are bought out by corporate warfare interest.

But if that's the fact, it's bad, but the ugly truth. You're on the wrong side. Let the chips fall were they may. And you'll fall with it, I can assure you. Somehow you didn't realize what we are about and how many we already are. If you have any guts left, fire Guy Smith and air a fair and serious version, without propaganda and already made-up minds.

Regards

Dirk Gerhardt
